

Shop With A Cop Brings Smiles!

On Saturday, December 15th, four Greenhills Police Officers took five young Greenhills residents shopping. Chief Neil Ferdelman, Lieutenant Anne Ward, Corporal Bryan Johnston and Officer Eric Tricase escorted five Greenhills children – Taylor, Thomas, Demarion, Tamaya, and Tamia – on a Christmas Shopping Spree.

Since we got an early start, of course the day started with lots of donuts and milk. Donuts were generously provided by Jupiter Donuts in Fairfield. Thomas practiced his police skills in the Chief's chair wearing The Hat. Below, the group found Santa as we began to shop!

Heading to the checkout left everyone so excited that Santa and his Elf came along to help. The whole crew (below) made sure that we had everything on the list and checked it twice.

Merry Christmas to All, with a special thanks to the donors in our wonderful community!
