

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS
ABOUT ANIMALS IN GREENHILLS

No animals are permitted to run loose in Greenhills.

All dogs must be licensed annually through the Hamilton County Auditor's Office.

Dogs must be kept on a leash at all times when off the premises of the owner.

Dog owners must remove any excrement deposited by a dog on public or private property.

Dog runs are permitted in Greenhills. A building permit must be obtained prior to the installation of a dog run/cage.

Greenhills does not have a dog breed-specific ban.

Kennels are not permitted in residential districts.

Dogs should not be permitted to disturb the peace with excessive barking or howling.

A limited amount of urban agriculture is permitted in Greenhills. Please review Greenhills Code of Ordinances Section 1125.03 for details on urban agriculture. The Code is available online at www.GreenhillsOhio.us

Hunting is prohibited.